MR. BUCKINGHAM'S RECORD.

Yesterday a number of gentlemen called at the office of the circuit clerk, and examined Mr. Buckingham's reports on record, and from said reports, and the explanation of them by Mr. McClellan, the circuit clerk, they arrived at the conclusion as set forth below:

DECATUR, ILL., Nov. 3, 1884.

We the undersigned, having examined the records of reports made by L. A. Buckingham embracing the period from December 1, 1876, to May, 1880, do find that instead of Mr. Buckingham owing the county of Macon the school fund that there was due him at the latter date, from the county, the sum of $214.78, and taking the statement of Mr. McClellan, clerk, concerning certain alleged discrepancies in one of said reports, that this amount due Mr. Buckingham would be increased to $299.78.

W. M. BOYD, C. A. EWING, S. S. JACK.

ALL taxation shall be limited to the requirements of economical government. The necessary reduction in taxation can, and must be, effected without depriving American labor of the ability to compete successfully with foreign labor, and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in this country.

—National Platform of the Democracy.

"TELL THE TRUTH."—Grover Cleveland

A few years ago Gen. Oglesby said publicly in this city: "The sum of Germany and the dross of Ireland hardly get the smell of salt water off their till they are found voting the democratic ticket."

TO ELECT CLEVELAND

The south, (153); New York, (30); Indiana, (15)—total, 204; necessary to elect, 201.

Or, New York, New Jersey, (9); Connecticut, (6)—total, 204.

Or, New York, New Jersey and Nevada, (3)—201.

Or, New York, New Jersey and California, (8)—206.

Vote the Democratic ticket.

"BLAINE IS AN IMPORTANT MAN FOR US TO HAVE."—Caldwell to Fisher.

Vote for Friedman. He will make a good Clerk.

Vote for Peter Perl. He will make a good coroner.

"I CAN DO SOMETHING, I FEEL VERY SANGUINE, WITH THOMAS A. SCOTT."—Blaine to Fisher.

The demonstration in New York city on Saturday afternoon and evening in honor of Gov. Cleveland was a magnificent affair. Only think! In the 1st division of the afternoon parade were 27,690 business men, 60 per cent. of whom voted for Harfield.

Vote for C. C. Clark for congress. He will make an able representative.

The Republican cries, look out for "pastors!" It evidently means New York pastors.

Vote for Graham. He is acknowledged by every one to be the best man in the field for the office.

The battle cry of the republicans the last few days is "DOWN WITH RUM, ROMANISM AND REBELLION."

Vote three votes for J. M. Graham for the legislature. The democrats of Logan county will cast three votes each for Templeman.

Vote for Buckingham. His opponents acknowledge that he makes a splendid State Attorney.

Look out for bogus tickets now. Pastors are used for convenience, but tickets printed under a false name are a fraud.

The Republican is making a howl about "pastors." It is the cry of "stop thief." Let democrats look out for "pastor" and illegal voters.

Vote for Isaac Vanordstrand, of Macon county, for Member of the Board of Equalization.

Let some of the friends of Mr. Vail may not have seen the list of questions propounded to that gentleman, we reproduce them this morning.

"BURN THIS LETTER."—J. G. G. Blaine.

No democrat, or friend of Carter Harrison, can consistently vote for Rowell for congress. He says that no honest man can vote for Carter Harrison.

The constitutional amendment to be voted on, is for a change which will permit the governor to veto any portion of an appropriation bill. Vote for it. It is a good measure.

We are republicans and don't propose to leave our party and identify ourselves with the party whose antecedents have been rum, Romanism and rebellion—Rev. Dr. Burchard to James G. Blaine.

Dr. Burchard's speech visibly affected Mr. Blaine and moisture glistened in his eyes.—Republican Reporter.

It has been charged against Mr. Shorb that he uses the influence of his position, as street commissioner, for partisan purposes on election day. The man should refuse to be bulldozed. Mr. Shorb holds over by a very slender thread. A street commissioner has not been appointed this year yet for the reason that Mr. Shorb would not be confirmed by the council. Why don't the mayor appoint?

"PRAY GIVE MY COMPLIMENTS TO MR. BLAINE, AND TELL HIM THAT I HAVE NO CRIMINAL PRACTICE."—[Roscoe Conkling.]

The radical preachers of New York, when they called upon Mr. Blaine, through their spokesman, Rev. Dr. Burchard, said:

We are happy to welcome you to this city. You see here a representation of all denominations of this city. You see the large number that are represented. We are your friends, Mr. Blaine, and notwithstanding all the calumnies that have been urged in the papers against you, we stand by your side—Shouts of "Amen."—We expect to vote for you next Tuesday. We have higher expectations, which are at you will be President of the United States, and that you will do honor to your name, to the United States and to the high office you will occupy. We are republicans, and don't propose to leave our party and identify ourselves with the party whose antecedents have been rum, ROMANISM and rebellion. We are loyal to our flag. We are loyal to you.

And the republican reporter for the occasion adds:

"As Dr. Burchard spoke his voice trembled, and his whole manner showed the earnestness of all he said. His speech visibly affected Mr. Blaine, and moisture glistened in his eyes."

Yesterday the democratic committee received the information that a republican employer had on Saturday night last said to his men, that those who voted the republican ticket might come to work again, and those who did not, would not be wanted. Mr. Dirfee, Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, authorizes a reward to be offered of $100 for positive information of this character. Lying men vote your principles! If you are molested, report the same at democratic headquarters.

The radical preacher who charged the democrats with being the party of "rum, Romanism and rebellion" does not say worse than Mr. Blaine often said in the Kennebec Journal, or as he wrote in the Madisonian circular.

"OWING TO YOUR POLITICAL POSITION YOU WERE ABLE TO WORK OFF ALL YOUR BONDS AT A VERY HIGH PRICE."—[Fisher to Blaine.]

The appropriation to be voted for or against to day, is for the completion of the new state house. If you favor it, vote the ticket as it is; if against it, erase the matter altogether.

THE LEGISLATURE

In voting for Representatives in the Legislature this year, it has been agreed by the Democrats of Logan and Macon counties that each county shall vote for its own man, Logan voting 3 votes for R. H. Templeman and Macon 3 votes for James M. Graham To equalize the votes, a certain number agreed upon will be cast in Macon county in certain districts for Templeman. Democrats of Macon county, except individually instructed by their committee, should vote 3 votes for Graham for the legislature. In this way we can divide the vote equally, and elect both men.

"OF ALL THE PARTIES CONNECTED WITH THE LITTLE ROCK AND FT. SMITH RAILROAD NO ONE HAS BEEN SO FORTUNATE AS YOURSELF IN OBTAINING MONEY OUT OF IT."—Fisher to Blaine

BLAINE now blubbers like a baby about Dr. Burchard's alliteration of democracy, "rum, Romanism and rebellion." When he heard it, was the time to have spoken. He listened approvingly and added complimentary words. Now when he learns that a storm of indignation has been raised, he would repudiate the injudicious pastor

WILL MR. VAIL PLEASE ANSWER?

Were you a republican prior to 1872?

If so, why did you cease to be a republican in 1872?

Did you not support the democratic national, state and county tickets in 1872 and oppose the republican ticket?

Were you not elected to the office of states attorney in Schuyler county in 1872 by the democrats?

Did you join the democrats in 1879 in order to get an office, or because you honestly believed that the democratic party was safer for the country than the republican party?

Were you not a democrat from 1872 until 1878?

Why did you again become a republican in 1878?

Was it because the democrats had grown worse, or because the republicans had a majority in Macon county?

Were you not a democrat and acting with the democrats after you came to Macon county?

Did you ever become a prohibitionist? If so, when, and are you now one? If not, when did you cease to be one?

Did you not oppose the election of B. Z. Taylor, who was nominated by the republicans for alderman in the Third ward of this city in the spring of 1883, and when asked why you were opposing the republican nominee, did you not give as a reason that you were a prohibitionist and that Taylor was in favor of license and that that was why you opposed him?

Have you not stated in your speeches at Macon, Wheatland, and other places, during the present campaign, that you were not a prohibitionist?

Were you not a candidate for re-nomination to the office of states attorney before the democratic convention of Schuyler county in 1876?

Did you not vote for Tilden in 1876?

Did you not introduce a resolution in the republican convention of this county in 1882, in favor of the submission and adoption of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the state?

Are you in favor of the submission of such a constitutional amendment?

If such a constitutional amendment is submitted, will you vote for its adoption or against it?

A REPUBLICAN.

The attempt to blacken the reputation of Mr. Buckingham on the eve of the election will not win. If he had been guilty as charged, where have been his republican successors, the circuit clerk, the sheriff and even Mr. Vail, during the past four years? Why did not the Republican and Herald find it out long ago? Just now they make a pretense of honesty, but it is all a sham.

FOURTEEN years ago a citizen of Decatur was elected to congress, since then Macon county has been neglected. It rests with the people of this county in a great measure whether our townsman Mr. C. C. Clark will represent this district in the next congress.

"IT WILL BE TO SOME EXTENT A MATTER OF FAVORITISM AS TO WHO GETS THE BANKS IN THE SEVERAL LOCALITIES, AND IT WILL BE IN MY POWER TO CAST AN ANCHOR TO WINDWARD IN YOUR BEHALF."—Speaker Blaine to Fisher.

The Decatur democrats were in high feather all day Sunday over a bogus dispatch a Decatur boss had read just for effect. The boss said there were 120,000 in line at the Cleveland meeting in New York Saturday night. To day even the democratic papers give the lie to the bogus telegram. None of the democratic papers in their reports of the meeting claim over 50,000, just 20,000 less than Blaine had in line in the same city Friday night.—[Decatur Republican.]

The Republican lies, and it knows it, when it says the democrats received a bogus telegram on Sunday. We publish this morning extracts from those dispatches, which were published in nearly all the leading democratic papers in the country on Sunday or Monday. The parade was an afternoon and night one. The afternoon march of business men alone had about 50,000 voters in line, and the night parade was longer in passing the reviewing stand.

VOTE for a Macon county man—Mr. C. C. Clark for congress.

Democrats, look out for the name of Thos. McGrath, the republican nominee for clerk of the supreme court on your ticket, instead of that of E. A. Snively, the nominee of the democratic party and the best and most efficient man who ever held the position.

The Pekin correspondent to the Peoria Democrat says: "Several Decatur bums who attended the republican party here Friday night, after the parade was over, filled themselves with burg juice and attempted to paint the town a vermilion hue. A con-ple of them went into a saloon on Court street and raised a row and were kicked out the back way, kicked through the alley and all over the street; in fact the bums were quite badly handled and will have cause to remember their experience in trying to run the city of Pekin for some days to come." Who were they?

James Green, a section hand on the Illinois Central railroad, was knocked down and run over by a hand car near Clinton. Saturday evening, while returning from his work, sustaining injuries which in the opinion of his physicians will result in his death.

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock a. m.

There will be a grand exhibition of fancy and acrobatic roller skating at the tabernacle on Thursday evening of the present week, at which Messrs. Boynton and Gentry, the acknowledged "champions of the east," will appear in one hundred and forty graceful and difficult feats and movements, including hand springs, somersaults, etc., on the rollers. A full band of music has been engaged for the occasion, and it is intended to be the greatest and grandest roller skating carnival of the season. Messrs. Boynton and Gentry will give instructions, free of charge, to any persons wishing to learn the art of roller skating.

The sisters in charge of St. Mary's hospital desire us to state that they will call upon our citizens for aid for their excellently conducted and eminently worthy institution this week. We hope they will be kindly received and liberally treated. There are now twenty eight persons in the hospital, and the amount of good the sisters have accomplished through its agency in the past year is uncalculable. It is a credit to our city, and in a pecuniary point of view is entitled to consideration, in that it is economically conducted, and its benefits extended to many who would otherwise become a charge upon the county. There is a debt of about $4,000 on the building and grounds, and the hospital is in need of additional furniture. "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver."

Democratic Meetings.

The democrats of Boody and vicinity held a rally and pole raising last evening, which called out a large and enthusiastic audience. C. A. Ewing was the speaker and he talked good, solid sense in a very convincing manner. The distribution of a circular there in regard to I. A. Buckingham's record, was satisfactorily explained. Mr. Ewing dwelt principally on land grants, all of which were made by republicans, except that for the Illinois Central by democrats to this state, and which road now pays an annual tax of over $200,000 to the state. His argument was strong and effective, and was received with applause and cheers. The meeting was an immense success, and put the democracy in good fighting trim for to-day.

A Card.

I desire to say in answer to the insinuating, lying charges that are being so industriously circulated against me by Mr. Vail and those assisting him that the charges are false. Any man who states that I, at any time, defrauded Macon county or the school fund out of a single cent, is an infamous liar and slanderer, as will be shown by the records of Macon county, and by my official reports made to the circuit court, if they could all be found.—[I. NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

An Almost Continuous March of Ten Hours.

One Hundred and Ten Thousand Friends of Cleveland in Line.

The following are extracts from special received from New York on Sunday:

New York, Nov. 2.—A week ago, when the business men paraded in honor of Governor Cleveland, they notified the republicans that if they paraded in honor of Blaine the Cleveland business men would afterward turn out in such numbers as to utterly overshadow anything here that Blaine's friends might do. They also said in their parade no one should march who was not connected with some of the various exchanges in the lower part of the city, or with the various trades in the metropolis, and that all should be citizens of New York and qualified to vote on election day.

That promise was more than fulfilled yesterday. No scene like that which has occurred this afternoon and evening has ever been witnessed in this country, and it never can be exceeded. The size of the procession was only limited by the capacity of the streets, and until the streets of New York are made wider no more than those who marched to-day can be got into one line.

As early as noon throngs commenced to pour in the direction of Broadway. Before 2 o'clock the entire thoroughfare from Madison Square to the battery, a distance of over three miles, was packed with a surging mass of humanity. At that time locomotion was impossible, and hundreds who expected to witness the parade went home because they were unable to obtain eligible positions from which they could view the procession.

In the parade yesterday every exchange and every trade in the city was represented. The procession was divided into two great divisions, the first of which was formed at Worth street, and the second at Bowling Green.

According to the schedule of the Grand Marshal there were 27,690 men in the first division, and every one of them were voters, and according to calculation, 60 per cent of whom were republicans who voted for Garfield in 1880. (The second division was almost as large.—Ed.)

At Twenty-fifth street and Broadway the reviewing stand was located. There was a grand stand on the right side of Broadway at this point for the guests of the Citizens' committee. Opposite this stand was a small but elegantly draped stand from which Governor Cleveland reviewed the parade. He stood upon a small projection in front of the stand with uncovered head during the entire time the parade was passing. Beside him were some of the most distinguished men in the country. Among them were Henry Ward Beecher, General Hancock, Senator Jones, H. B. Claflin, A. J. Drexel, De Witt Seigismann, George William Curtis, and special representatives from the various business exchanges.

The entire procession sang numberless mottoes in marching time. Among them were: "Fisher, Fisher, burn this letter," "Left, left, Jim Blaine's left," "Blaine, Blaine, Jay Gould's Blaine," "Blaine, Blaine, the fraud from Maine," "Don't refuse a sick man," "House, house, no hotel." These cries were taken up by the crowds for the whole length of Broadway, and there was one continuous shout of derision for Blaine. The mottoes and transparencies carried by the procession were almost numberless and very telling, those of Puck being especially good. Among those in line was the representation of a large tombstone which bore the following epitaph: "Here lies and always has lied, James G. Blaine." Another one was a large anchor, "Cast to windward." Another was a death's head with the motto: "Blaine is a dead-head in this enterprise."

Senator Conkling was a spectator of the parade. He stood in the window of the New York Club, on Fifth avenue, just above the reviewing stand, and beside him were Theodore Myers and Albert H. Vernon, A. H. Thompson, Hugh D. Derivers, and several others. As the head of the procession passed Mr. Conkling was recognized and loudly cheered. The crowd kept cheering until he appeared upon the balcony of the club, with head uncovered, and where he stood for three and one-half hours, until the entire parade had passed.

Governor Cleveland left the reviewing stand at five minutes to 8, went immediately to the Hoffman House, ate a hasty meal, taking only ten minutes, when he returned to the reviewing stand to witness the night parade. He arrived there just as the head of the procession reached there. At that time Broadway and Fifth Avenue were one blaze of red fire, and hundreds of sky-rockets and bombs filled the air. As far as the eye could see there was a vast mass of men bearing torches, marching in close order, with a file front of twenty men. At midnight the procession was still passing the reviewing points, and it was 2 o'clock in the morning before the last division went by. This made a continuous parade up Fifth Avenue, with a break of only twenty-five minutes, for ten hours, no man passing the reviewing stand twice. A careful estimate showed that in the afternoon and evening parades there was fully 110,000 men in line.

Glanders.

This disease is the most fatal and loathsome to which the horse is subject. The first symptom is a dry but not a starting appearance of the hair. Occasionally it resumes its gloss, but soon fades again. The flesh diminishes rapidly on dry food, but returns again on bran. This improvement, however, will only be temporary, and the flesh soon wastes again. Eventually the hair becomes staring and the horse exhibits signs of failing strength and vitality. These symptoms may continue a long or short time before others appear. The next symptom will be a discharge from the nose of a pale color than that of common cold or gleet and not so profuse, and of a more glutinous. The discharge in cold or gleet is from both nostrils and in large quantities, stopping and recommencing, but in glanders it is continuous and secret and eff etc but one nostril. Nine cases out of ten this will be the left nostril. The discharge is offensive, becoming more so as the case advances. After the discharge has progressed to what might be termed the second stage, the discharge from the nostril will be streaked with pus or matter. Examination will show the membrane of the nose to present a dark purple or even leaden color, widely differing from the pink blush of health or the fiery red of inflammation. Ulcers with thick raised edges round and deep, will also be seen. The breathing becomes more affected, generally with a cough. At this stage the glands under the jaw become affected. They will not be as largely swollen and inflamed as in catarrh and other diseases affecting them, but will be small and hard near the jaw bone, and the nearer they get to the throat the more they will be enlarged. The belly will begin to tuck up, the horse will eat but little, an occasional cough will be heard, his strength falls fast, the discharge from the nostril becomes streaked with blood and in larger quantities. Both nostrils will discharge, but to this there are exceptions. Small ulcers will appear on the outside of the nose and the discharge becomes extremely offensive. The hind legs begin to swell, sometimes one preceding the other. These symptoms grow worse and worse until the animal's sufferings are relieved by death.

THE STALWARTS' REVOLT.

A Formidable Movement Inaugurated in Oneida County.

[Utica Dispatch in N. Y. World.]
The statement published in The New York Tribune, purporting to have come from here, that the Stalwart opposition to Mr. Blaine in Utica had ceased to exist, turns out to be the reverse of the truth. It only requires a call on the leading Republican merchants and business men to satisfy the most credulous that the opposition to the tattered man among the Stalwarts is still earnest and determined. I have been unable to find among that class of Republicans in this city a single man who will express the belief that Blaine has any possible chance of carrying this state. Aside from this the Stalwarts are perfecting an organization of their own and enrolling their men. Sixty of the prominent Stalwarts of this city hold a caucus night before last and decided to make an earnest fight against Blaine's election. An address was prepared setting forth the reasons for their opposition, signed it and had copies printed, which are now being circulated among the Stalwarts of this city and county for their signatures. As soon as it is signed by prominent Republicans of the county it will be issued to the public. It gives seven reasons why Republicans ought to oppose Blaine, all based on points of his public career. Among those who have already signed this document are: Lewis Lawrence, ex-Judge William J. Bacon, Dr. Watson, who was on Gov. Cornell's staff; W. H. Comstock, ex-deputy attorney general; Charles J. Everett, Benjamin Allen, John E. Brandegee, A. B. Walling, A. H. Sheldon and Charles Miller, all prominent citizens, and men whose names carry weight in the community. The leading Stalwart in this movement states that there will be at least 400 Stalwarts in the city of Utica who will unite in the movement, and will not vote for Blaine, add about the same number in other parts of the county. Four years ago they supported Garfield, under the lead of Roscoe Conkling, and the majority in the county voted for him. The Stalwarts predict that Cleveland will carry the county this year.

The Republican Candidate.
[Harper's Weekly.]

That's the kind of a man he is.

TRUTH WILL OUT.

The Handwriting on the Wall—Democratic Victory.

[New York World.]
Truth will out. Republican victory. Truth will out before official figures. According to the latest reports the elections of last week show the following extraordinary results:

1. The Republican plurality in Ohio is reduced to about half of what it was four years ago.
2. The Republican majority on the state ticket is less than nothing. The Republicans are actually in a minority, while four years ago they had a majority of over 40,000 over Democrats, Greenbackers and Prohibitionists combined.
3. The Republicans are not only in a minority in the popular vote of Ohio, but they elect a minority of the Congressional delegation. Four years ago they elected 15 Republicans to congress. This year they only elect 10. Four years ago the Democrats elected only 5 representatives; this year they elect 11—a majority of the delegation.
4. The increase in the vote of Ohio over the four years ago is 66,000. The Democrats cast 30,000 votes more than they cast for Hancock, while the Republicans, in spite of Blaine, Dudley and corruption, cast only 10,000 more than they cast for Garfield. In other words, nearly two-thirds of the new vote since 1880 went Democratic, with a large part of the Republican vote that was unquestionably obtained by fraudulent wholesale bribery in the large cities.
5. In West Virginia the Democrats have a clear majority, over the Republicans and Greenbackers combined, nearly three times as large as Hancock's majority in 1880. They swept every congressional district in the state, gaining one now held by a Republican.

If this be a "victory" the Republicans are welcome to it.
These figures show plainly that Blaine is much weaker than Garfield; that the popular vote is against him in spite of all his doings; that he is doomed to defeat; and that if the Democrats could gain 40,000 votes in Garfield's Republican state over those cast for Hancock, they should and will gain at least 100,000 in Democratic New York, where nearly this entire respectable class, as well as the Stalwarts, Germans and Prohibitionists, are in open rebellion against corrupt Star routinism and Republicanism.

Independents in New York.

[New York World.]
It is a common assertion made by the Sun and other Republican organs that the Independent Republicans are exaggerating their strength. The contrary, however, is the fact. It is a fact, however, which those who are still pinning their hopes on Blaine should know. The Independent Republicans are still carrying the day. A majority of 10,000 would be a drawn battle. A majority of 8,000 would be a merry hell for our side. "Our side" appears to be wavering between a drawn battle and "merry hell."

A Republican View of It.

[Milwaukee Journal.]
Mr. J. B. McCullough, editor of The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, telegraphed The St. Paul Day on Tuesday: "Ohio ought to go 20,000 Republicans after the stirring up she has had. Anything less than that will be so much show of the assurance of victory in the coming year. A majority of 10,000 would be a drawn battle. A majority of 8,000 would be a merry hell for our side. 'Our side' appears to be wavering between a drawn battle and 'merry hell.'"

When rheumatism and neuralgia have so long held sway in the system, their victims are liable to become discouraged and give up the battle. Athlophoros, the great specific for these frightful troubles, has been the means of curing many who were despairing of recovery. It is a powerful and driving the acid substances from the blood, and drives the impurities to the surface. Mr. A. R. Norton of Bristol, Conn., is one of many hundreds to testify to the efficacy of this invaluable medicine.
